

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

EUNSEUK OH,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 1:25-cv-05578

v.

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED
ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A”,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, EUNSEUK OH (“Oh” or “Plaintiff”), by Plaintiff’s undersigned counsel, hereby complains of the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”), and for Plaintiff’s Complaint hereby alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants since each of the Defendants directly targets consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores operating under the Defendant aliases and/or the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff’s copyrighted works. Each of the Defendants has targeted Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and, on information and belief, have sold products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrighted works to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Additionally, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) confers personal jurisdiction over Defendants because the claims asserted herein arise under federal copyright law, Defendants would not be subject to jurisdiction in any state's courts of general jurisdiction, and exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

INTRODUCTION

3. Plaintiff, Eunseuk Oh, is the owner of the federal copyright registrations that protect the creative content of Plaintiff's illustrations. Oh is a watermedia artist renowned for her vibrant and innovative watercolor batik paintings. She creates art under the name Hailey Herrera.

4. This action has been filed by Plaintiff to combat online copyright infringers who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill, and valuable copyrights by selling and/or offering for sale products in connection with Plaintiff's illustrations. In addition, the Defendants are selling unauthorized products that are based on and derived from the copyrighted subject matter of Plaintiff's illustrations.

5. Plaintiff is the owner of United States Copyright Registration Nos. VA 2-421-396; VA 2-420-563; VA 2-421-395; VA 2-421-397; VA 2-420-453; VA 2-421-394; and VA 2-421-393 (the "Hailey Herrera Works") and the registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Upon information and belief, the copyrights have effective dates that predate the Defendants' acts of copyright infringement.

6. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Hailey Herrera Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Hailey Herrera Products.

7. The Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the unauthorized products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' piracy of the Hailey Herrera Works. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through loss of control over the creative content of the valuable copyrights, reputation, goodwill, the quality, and ability to license as a result of Defendants' actions and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

THE PLAINTIFF

8. Plaintiff, Eunseuk Oh, is the owner of the Copyright Registrations that protect the creative content of the Hailey Herrera Works. Oh is a watermedia artist renowned for her vibrant and innovative watercolor batik paintings. She creates art under the name Hailey Herrera. Growing up in South Korea, she discovered her love for art early, painting on and off since the age of seven. After immigrating to the United States in 1997 for graduate studies, she earned a PhD in 2004 and briefly worked as a research scientist and lecturer. In 2011, she began painting watercolors in earnest, discovering watercolor batik in 2012—a unique process that combines watercolor washes and wax resist on textured mulberry paper. This technique allows her to create luminous, layered works that blend Eastern and Western artistic traditions. Inspired by Korean oriental painting and Japanese woodblock prints, her art incorporates simplified forms, bold colors, and Western techniques such as negative space and optical color mixing. Her work celebrates the beauty and essence of nature, capturing the vivid colors, intricate patterns, and dynamic forms found in landscapes, flora, and organic elements. It fosters a deep connection between viewers and the natural world, inviting reflection and appreciation. Known for its depth, striking hues, and intricate detail, her work has been exhibited in major museums and licensed to companies across the United States and Canada.

9. Oh has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Hailey Herrera Works. As a result, products associated with the Hailey Herrera Works are recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as products authorized by Oh (the “Hailey Herrera Products”).
